STATE	WAR	NAVY	JUSTICE	R & E	C & D	2018

1. The Rumanian National Front was formed [redacted] after the fall of Antonescu on 23 August 1944. Following the advent of the Grosse government, however, supporters of the National Peasant and National Liberal Parties left the Front, which remained dominated by the Rumanian Communists [redacted]

2. La Roumanie Libre is the official newspaper of the Front. At the present time the Front has 1,875 members on its rolls, including many Iron Guardists who have apparently been ordered by their leadership to penetrate the organization.

3. Officers of the Front, elected 18 April 1947, are as follows:

Traian Vuia	President
P. Alexandrescu	Vice-President
Raoul Florescu	Secretary General

4. In view of the declining influence of the Front, the Groza government is considering its dissolution and the creation of another organization, which would enroll all Rumanians [ ] without regard to their political beliefs. b6 b7C
